

FOR YOUNG
DOG LOVERS
WORLDWIDE

#FCINext

Youth is the future

Youth is the future, is an overrated statement.

Is it?

Socially responsible organization seeking to bring up a new responsible generation of dog lovers and to encourage them to get involved into the World's most important dog organization.

Project

- A worldwide project to attract young people from around the World to the FCI culture.
- A working group that will develop and lead the FCI initiatives to children, teenagers, young adults and young professionals.
- Incentivize the involvement of young publics in to educational, scientific, and research programs and initiatives related to dogs.

Purpose

- Get and keep young people involved in the cynology
- Educate young people in taking proper care and training of dogs
- Educate responsible dog owners
- Offer quality and meaningful pastime with dogs
- Involve a new generation with the FCI
- Contribute to moulding a cynological culture around the world.

Mission

To develop and lead the FCI initiatives toward the youth community and become a reliable source of reference for all (young) dog lovers worldwide.

Vision

Perpetuate and support the bond between young people and dogs, by encouraging a sustainable commitment to the cynological activity around the World, through a local and global approach.
